HEALING YOUR PAST LIVING YOUR TRUTH

MEDITATION AND YOGA RETREAT INTENSIVE

Four Day/Three Night Retreat

March 26-29, 2020

Take the time...

meditation • gentle yoga
mindfulness practice • art therapy • inquiry

Give yourself time for quiet contemplation and enter into the realm of true-self.

The journey of learning to live according to your innermost values is a holy practice. It is a sacred adventure where you heal the past and become more intentional. Along the way you replace habits that no longer serve, lovingly address past trauma, cultivate social support, sense your place in the universe and practice lots of self-care. It involves big doses of self-understanding, self-acceptance and acting on your core values.

This retreat is an immersion in healing practices. They include: meditating to learn to witness thoughts and quiet our minds, practicing compassionate ways to take care of our tender emotions, practicing yoga to heal and relax our bodies and inquiring into core values.

We learn by studying important insights, such as, “we are much more than our old stories and emotions.” We also touch into our inner stillness, knowing and extraordinary potential.

The days go from 7am to 9pm with a balanced schedule of meditation, gentle yoga, art therapy, journaling, teachings, and group discussions. Delicious meals are provided along with healthy snacks and coffee. The setting is welcoming, comfortable, and idyllic, with time after lunch to hike around lakes and take in the sky and oak-covered hills.

Outside of guided group discussions and optional visiting time after lunch, we maintain silence to facilitate deep transformation. Attendees quickly adjust to it and appreciate the restful break from everyday ego and small talk.

The environment is safe, non-judgmental, and non-dogmatic, borrowing from the wisdom traditions as well as the latest findings of neuroscience. Rick and Mary lead gently with warmth, joy, intelligence, respect, and deep experiential knowledge.

In our daily lives we inevitably get caught up in the business of routine tasks. We don't take the time to explore what is most central to our happiness and wellbeing. For this reason it is truly invaluable to set aside time for retreat.

Experience:

- ◆ Moving in the direction of your potential.
- ◆ The extraordinary peace of a quiet mind.
- ◆ Feeling connected with yourself and life.
- ◆ Living according to your most heartfelt values.

We have combined the most transformative spiritual practices from our previous retreats to create a powerful spiritual and psychological container for connecting into the inner happiness and peace.
